

The Light in the Night

By Neema Jai

It was a dark night.
Nina the fox could not sleep.
She saw a light in the woods.
It was big... and bright!

"I must find out what it is!" said Nina.
She held her kite tight and ran.
"I hope it's not a fright!"
She stepped into the woods.

Suddenly, she saw the light move!
Was it a dragon? A bat?
No! It was a campfire.
And beside it sat her friend Knight
the cat.

Knight said, "I lit the fire to stay warm!"

Nina smiled. "You gave me a fright!"
Then they sat together by the light, talking and laughing through the night.
